

The Toronto Children's Concert Choir and Performing Arts Company –TC3
Is getting ready to amaze you
on Saturday June 6th

(Toronto –Wednesday, May 13, 2015) One of Canada's most exciting, growing and talented youth performing arts companies, The Toronto Children's Concert Choir and Performing Arts Company –TC3 www.TC3.ca is having their annual Spring Production and fundraiser on Saturday June 6th 2015 at the Jane Mallet Theatre in the prestigious St. Lawrence Centre for the Arts.

This ever so inspiring performing arts company has toured internationally in places such as London, Bahamas, New York, Montreal and Halifax and recently collaborated on a recording with Afro-Jazz artist Sonia Aimy in a call for the release of the Nigerian school girls taken captive. At home or abroad, TC3's rousing performances of gospel, Spirituals and inspirational songs inspire, uplift and ignite the spirit.

This year's concert, entitled "Get Ready", is a celebration of gospel and inspirational music, African, Hip Hop and contemporary dance and Afro-Caribbean drumming. TC3's young people are not only known for their talent but for their song writing creativity and ability to add a gospel touch to musical selections made famous by artists such as the Temptations, Shalamar and John Mayer.

TC3 is more than just a choir. Comprised of over 30 talented young people, ages 7 to 18 from across the Greater Toronto Area, TC3 is dedicated to developing and encouraging youth to expand their artistic talents through inspirational song, dance, Afro-Caribbean drumming. The goal is to create opportunities for youth to use their talent in a positive way to change their lives presently and for the future. In addition to the performing arts, students are given academic support which is a mandatory component of their membership.

What: The Toronto Children's Concert Choir & Performing Arts Company (TC3)
"Great Ready" Concert.

Special Guests: Joy Lapps – The Princess of Pan
MC: Clairmont Humphrey -Streaming Praise Radio

When: Saturday, June 6, 2015

Time: 7:00 pm

Where: Jane Mallett Theatre in the St. Lawrence Centre for the Arts.
27 Front Street East, Toronto.

Ticket Info. Tickets are $25 for children/youth, $35 for seniors and $40 for adults
Online: www.stlc.com Phone: 416 366 7723 or 1-800-708-6754 or at the door

Founded in 2001, by Rev. Denise Gillard, The Toronto Children's Concert Choir & Performing Arts Company (TC3) is committed to producing a world-class youth performing arts company reflective of our great city. Our performing arts company provides a culturally-rich musical arts program that ranges from Spirituals to hip hop. Our positive environment nurtures a sense of extended family and community. TC3 is the premier program of HopeWorks Connection, www.hopeworksconnection.ca - a not-for-profit whose mandate is to empower youth through the performing arts, academics and by relieving poverty. It is one of the only organization in the Greater Toronto Area creating opportunities for people of diverse backgrounds who are dedicated to the holistic development of African Canadian youth through the performing arts. Since its inception HWC has collaborated with schools, agencies, governments, churches, community centres and various other community-based organizations to offer a variety of performing arts programs, workshops and youth development activities to youth of all ages and background. HWC envisions "Youth unleashing their artistic talent and energy as a creative alternative to self-destruction."

For More Information contact:

Stephanie Keating at Keating Media Relations - keatingmediarelations@gmail.com 514 264 2388